

Complete service visibility

24/7

Monitoring tools

SmartSupport provides one unified service that encompasses user support issues, infrastructure performance monitoring and incident management.

Our IT support methods are designed to work in partnership with your business, not in isolation, and through our customer portal you can gain visibility of your infrastructure performance as well as transparency over support tickets.

These expert tools also provide both an accurate record of performance and a means of identifying and resolving recurring issues.